WE'RE ALL ON THE SAME TEAM

RVITP exists to help its membership excel in their IT related field.

We believe there is great benefit in the mutual exchange of ideas.

River Valley IT Professionals is a nonprofit educational organization which promotes activities encouraging the exchange of information among its members. Such activities include member and vendor led presentations at River Valley IT Professionals meetings. River Valley IT Professionals encourage professionalism and technical competence.

RVITP promotes the acceleration of the mutual success of its members

OUR MISSION

RVITP serves as an open forum for the exchange of ideas related to Information Technology in the corporate sector of the River Valley area. RVITP promotes the acceleration of the mutual success of its membership through the sharing of useful information, best practices, innovative products and techniques, and through using its collective voice to influence vendor products and services.
